

Natural Resource Opportunities for Landowners

A Southern Regional Webinar Series

SESSION DETAILS & REGISTRATION

http://www.clemson.edu/extension/natural_resources/continuing_education/nrol/

COST

$100 for all 5 or $25/session. Sessions will be archived for later viewing

GROUP VIEWING SESSIONS AVAILABLE

Contact your local extension agent or Ben Jackson (information below) to find out about viewing sessions in your area.

QUESTIONS

For more information about hosting a site or other program information, contact Ben Jackson at 706-542-9051 or bjack@uga.edu

FIVE SESSIONS thursdays 7:00 – 8:30 pm

October 11	Introduction to Natural Resource Conservation What you need to know about your land in a changing environmental, economic and social era
October 18	Natural Resource Enterprise Considerations Ways to develop money-making opportunities for your land
October 25	Wildlife Conservation (Introduction to Master Wildlife) Introduction to topics important to wildlife management
Nov 1	Forest Management on Your Land (Introduction to Master Treefarmer) Pine and hardwood forest management to satisfy timber revenue goals
Nov 8	Natural Resource Appreciative Values and Uses Case studies and projects to meet appreciative value goals